THREE BABIES IN HOSPITAL ONE DAY

Last Sunday was a banner day for Dr. U. J. Dowling and the Hamlin Hospital and Clinic, when the baby count was completed—three bouncing little fellows was the sum total. The happy parents include:

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell K. Ballew who now have a fine little daughter who carries the name Jo Anita and weighed nearly six pounds. Her birthday is November 13.

Also Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. John Barnett were greeted Sunday afternoon at the Hospital by a big girl weighing eight and one-half pounds. The Herald did not learn this little lady's name, but we are sure it is a pretty one.

Also Sunday morning, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Watts of the Radium community received another big boy and what a boy! . . . nine pounds, and he showed it too. This big man is named Harmon Lee. A boy of this size should be a commander of something.

OTHER HOSPITAL NEWS

Little Jerry Vaughan of the Dovie community is seriously ill at the Hospital, but after a blood transfusion on Wednesday night he is showing great improvement.

Mrs. S. K. Dillard and Mrs. J. M. Scott had slight operations at the Hospital this week and Mrs. W. B. Agnew is receiving treatment, and all getting along nicely.

Thanksgiving Service at High School Auditorium

The pastors and churches in Hamlin are joining together for a Thanksgiving service to be held in the High School Auditorium this Sunday evening at 7:30. Evangelist Horace W. Busby, who is conducting a meeting at the Church of Christ will bring the message. The choirs of the various churches will lead in the singing.

It seems to us that everyone would want to attend this service. Come and bring some one with you. —Committee.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Did you go to church somewhere last Sunday? Do you ever attend church? It seems to me that you ought. God has been very good to this section of the world this year. Out of our appreciation for his goodness we should do no less than attend His services.

The Baptist Church invites you to come next Sunday.

J. HENRY LITTLETON, Pastor.

Mrs. Carlton Parker and son, James, returned to their home in Littlefield last week after spending seven weeks here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Magee so that James could take treatment for injury which he received in a car wreck. He is much improved and is able to attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Cassle spent Armistice Day and the week-end at Waco visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allbritton.

BOX SUPPER WILL BE HELD NOV. 29

The Hamlin Lion's Club and the two P. T. A. organizations will hold their annual Box Supper, on November 29, in the High School Auditorium.

The boxes will be sold from the stage of that auditorium, and will be carried by the purchasers into the down stairs hall where long tables will be prepared for the spread.

The auctioneers for that occasion will be the well known and highly efficient Gerald Morgan, Ted Russell and Joe Culberson.

Prizes will be given for the prettiest boxes, prettiest prices, and winners of novelty contests.

High school and elementary school girls and boys will be invited to participate, although a limit will be set on the bidding of their boxes.

It will be old-fashioned, pleasant, profitable and full of pep. Everyone is cordially invited to bring a box and participate.

HOME EC. CLUB

Wednesday, Nov. 16, the Home Ec. Club met for the second time this year. The president, Dorothy Gardner took charge of the meeting and announced the program as follows: "Old-Fashioned Pep," a club song, sung by the Home Ec. girls, the club motto, a talk, "School Girl Charm," given by Mrs. G. R. Bennett and a song by Rosemary Carlton and Peggy Jane Teague accompanied by Mignon Waggoner.

Business was brought before the house and the club selected Mrs. Kenneth Scott as their club mother. Representatives from Hamlin Home Ec club will go to Rule to the District Home Ec. club meeting this Saturday.

Bankers J. W. Ezell and Tate May attended the Bankers Convention in Houston this week. They will arrive home Friday.

GARLAND TUMLIN DIED IN ATLANTA

Friends of Garland Tumlin in Hamlin received word last Saturday that he had passed away at a hospital in Atlanta Georgia, Saturday morning at 12:45 o'clock.

On Thursday before, a message came from Mrs. Tumlin and her father, John T. Day, that Garland could last but a few days longer and others of the family, John Ed, and sister, Mrs. Maurice Smith and husband, made plane reservations at Dallas and left that city early Friday morning and arrived in Atlanta six hours later. Garland apparently recognized some of them and lapsed into unconsciousness to the end.

About two weeks previously, Garland's brother-in-law, Dr. J. L. Meeks came by plane to Hamlin to see Garland and carried him for treatment to a veterans' hospital in Atlanta. Mrs. Tumlin joined him a week later. For two years or longer it was known that Garland's health was in a serious condition, but he kept up a spirit of determination till a few weeks before his death.

Survivors are his wife, formerly Elizabeth Day, his mother (now very ill) two brothers, Garnett and Arnold Tumlin and a sister, Mrs. Jesse L. Meeks, all of Gainesville, Ga.

Mr. Tumlin was born 43 years ago, in Hall County Ga., the son of Frank M. Tumlin, who for a long time was state representative in the Georgia legislature. Garland graduated from the North Georgia College at Dahlonega. He was in the World War service as sergeant in the 306th supply train, for 17 months. He later became cashier of a bank in Gainesville, Ga. and about 18 years ago came to Hamlin and took a position with the First National Bank of Hamlin. He was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Day and later resigned his place at the bank and became a partner in the John T. Day & Son Hardware business and the Home Lumber Company, being the accountant for both business firms.

Mr. Tumlin was a member of the Methodist Church and the Masonic fraternity.

Funeral services were held at the home of his brother, Garnet Tumlin in Gainesville on Sunday afternoon, conducted by a Presbyterian minister, Rev. M. C. Dendy and the pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. R. L. Russell. Following the services the American Legion took charge and a very impressive military ceremony was enacted at the Alta Vista Cemetery which had just been beautifully decorated in honor of other veterans on Armistice Day.

Mr. Tumlin will be missed from the walks of men, especially in Hamlin. He was a friend-making man and a progressive business man.

(A telegram arrived in Hamlin, Thursday that the mother of Garland Tumlin, Mrs. Frank M. Tumlin had died that morning.)

HAMLIN PIPERS PLAY MUNDAY, HERE

Hamlin business houses will close shop Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock to give everybody a chance to see the Pied Pipers play Munday on our home-town field.

Munday and Hamlin have about the same rating in the conference line-up and this game should afford both towns a good chance to do some real "pepping up."

So far this season Hamlin has played but one conference game on their own lot. However, Hamlin is matched for a tussle with Anson in Hamlin on November 24, and that is Thanksgiving Day and if it works out as in former years the game will be pulled off either on Wednesday before or early Thursday morning. But at this time it is billed to be played on the 24th of November which is on Thursday. Some hint has been given that the time will be changed. Hamlin was billed to play Haskell, conference game, in Hamlin, but yielded to that city and pulled the game off in Haskell.

Munday's play in Hamlin on this Friday will perhaps draw the best crowd yet here this season. The Pipers are hoped to win this game. "COLORADO 29—HAMLIN 6"

A good game between the Pipers and the Colorado team was enjoyed by many Hamlin people on Armistice Day. The fact that the Pied Pipers crossed the Goal Line for a touchdown meant something. Colorado ended the contest with 29. Carlton and Burton did the scoring on a long fast pass from Carlton to Burton and a run of 25 yards across the line.

Coach Smith has developed a good team for Hamlin this year out of a lot of new material. Not winners but a good team that plays with plenty of fight and vim. The team this year has had more than usual backing from Hamlin folks.

Lets go down and see how the Munday-Hamlin game comes out this Friday.

Information is that W. R. Tomlinson, known in Hamlin as "Dick," died at his home in Pennington, Texas, suddenly, Friday, Nov. 11. He leaves a wife and two daughters. This family lived in Hamlin in former years.

Out of more than 23½ million dollars spent by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company to provide telephone service in Texas last year, about 10 million dollars . . . nearly half . . . went for wages. Wages to 9,000 telephone people, who in turn spent most of that money in Texas.

Telephone wages play no small part in keeping the state's business moving. And by assuring telephone users of the services of skilled, efficient people, they play a large part in giving you good telephone service at reasonable cost. Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Work of Fisher County Club Women

By JOELLENE VANNOY,
Home Demonstration Agent Fisher
County, Roby

"From the sale of an old piano I created a bedroom and improved another," stated Mrs. Melvin Courtney, bedroom demonstrator of the McCauley Home Demonstration Club. "First, I purchased a walnut suite and a 12 x 12 foot linoleum. Then, with the help of the other members of my club I made a mattress. I had been given a goose feather bed and plan to use the remainder of the feathers in a down comfort. I made my bed standard by making a spring cover, mattress cover, mattress pad, pillow covers, and comfort protector.

"My husband kalsomized the old sheet rock walls, which were very dark and dingy looking, with five pounds of cream colored calomise which made the room appear much lighter. The room in which I placed the new furniture had a small closet which was built into a flue corner. I placed a clothes rod and three shelves in it, but supplemented this inadequate closet with a home-made chest stained to match the furniture, which I used as my linen storage space.

"In the room I had only one small picture, a flower print. In order to add more pictures to the room I used two magazine covers, which harmonized with the other furnishings of the room and I also made frames for them. I bought linen crash for scarfs for the dresser and high-boy and finished the hem with Bermuda fagoting.

"In the bedroom which I had been using I repainted the worn linoleum with floor enamel. My husband made a desk and table for this room and new shades and drapes were added in it. Now, both my bedrooms look attractive.

"I have thoroughly enjoyed being a demonstrator, for it has taught me how to become more efficient in my profession, the most important profession on earth—home making. It has also taught me to better understand life through working out problems with my fellow club members. And it has also made me happy in knowing that the time has been profitably spent."

By JEWELL HIPP,
Ass't County Home Demonstration
Agent Fisher County, Roby

"When I began my club work this year, I started out by building a place to put my chickens. I put two side boards together to keep them in until I got a house to put them in," explained Mildred Hughes, poultry demonstrator of Cannon 4-H Club to Jewell Hipp, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent.

"I had one hundred anconas and one hundred fifty brown leghorn baby chicks. The feeders were made from lumber and waterers from syrup buckets with holes in them. The chicks had starter feed three times daily.

"When they were around six weeks of age my daddy helped me build roosts for them out of lumber which cost $3.00.

"We sold six cockerels and used the others at home. Keeping the pullets for the laying flock. The nests for the pullets were built from orange and apple crates.

"I have fed the pullets three sacks of laying mash up to date. They are laying good and I get to market some eggs every Saturday.

"I have enjoyed my poultry work very much and have learned to care for chickens and how to cull them."

"I have made several improvements in my yard this year that I am very proud of," stated Mrs. Lee Faucher, yard improvement demonstrator for the Cross Roads Home Demonstration Club. "We have built walks and curbing of concrete, put up a new fence around the yard, planted foundation plantings, and rose garden, put out trees and planted flowers. This added much to the attractiveness of our home," she continued.

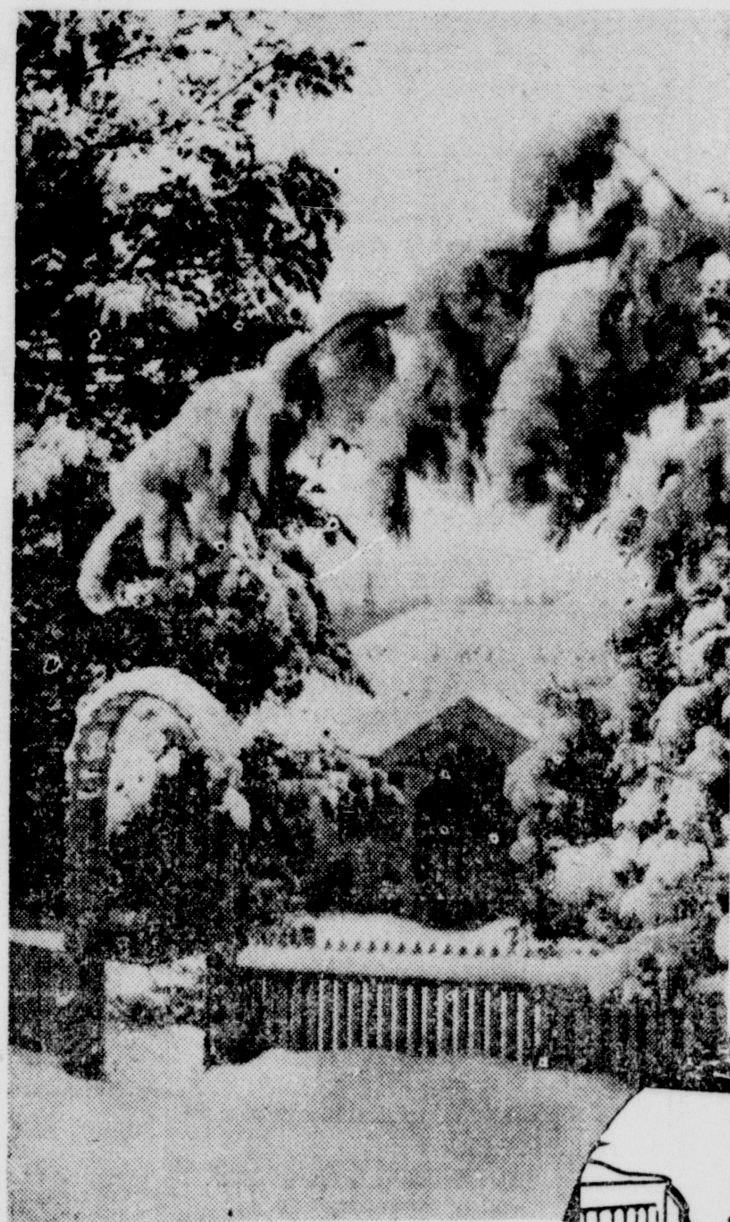

"Out of the one hundred trees I ordered from the Experiment Station at Lubbock, only two were lost, these being run over by a tractor by accident," explained Mrs. S. E. Miers of the McCauley Home Demonstration Club. "The trees have grown nicely since the year was favorable and promises quite an addition to the home, for shade trees in west Texas are such a help in protecting the home and out buildings as well as serving for a frame of landscape picture," continued Mrs. Miers.

ACREAGE DEVOTED TO WHEAT IN 1939

We quote the following telegram recently received from Mr. I. W. Duggan, Director, Southern Division, Agricultural Adjustment Administration:

"Due to lack of time for farmers to become familiar with advantage of planting within their wheat acreage allotments after such allotments were received, acreage planted to wheat has been defined as (1) any acreage of land devoted to seeded wheat (except mixtures) which is on the farm on or after December 15, 1938; (2) any acreage of land devoted to volunteer wheat which remains on the land till April 15, 1939; (3) any acreage of land which is seeded to a mixture containing wheat but the crop other than wheat failed to reach maturity and the wheat is harvested for grain or hay. This information should be given without possible distribution immediately."

The letter quoted below was received from Mr. I. W. Duggan, Director Southern Division, A.A.A., and is self-explanatory. You should make this information available to wheat producers in your county.

"As indicated to you in our wire of November 5, wheat producers who have seeded in excess of their allotment have until December 15 to bring their farms into compliance. This may be done, of course, by seeding barley, rye, vetch, or Austrian winter peas as a mixture with wheat, or by bringing their seeded acreage within their allotment by disposing of such excess acreage prior to the date mentioned above."

The present instructions for checking wheat acreage provide that the wheat acreage on all farms for which wheat acreage allotments have been established will be measured this fall. This should be done regardless of whether the operators of the farms have seeded within their allotments. The expenses for this work will be paid and funds appropriated for the wheat price adjustment payment plan and are not deductible from payments to farmers. Therefore, the administrative expenses for doing this work will not be reflected in payments to farmers."

COTTON ACREAGE

ALLOTMENT FOR 1939

The County Association office has recently received the 1939 Cotton Acreage Allotment for Jones County which is 145,730 acres. This is an allotment similar to the 1938 cotton acreage allotment for the county and should give approximately the same per cent of the cropland for cotton in 1939 as we had in 1938. The cotton acreage allotments for 1939 will be available within a few weeks as a concentrated effort is being made over the state to push this work to completion.

CROP INSURANCE FOR WHEAT

Approximately 6,000 Texas wheat farmers have filed application with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation for all-risk insurance on their 1939 wheat crop. Three-fourths million acres of Texas wheat will be covered by insurance which guarantees farmers a fair yield on this number of acres, regardless of weather conditions, if all these farmers pay their premiums. The effect this might have on business in general in the wheat section of our state will be apparent.

The final date for payment of premiums is November 19. The insurance is not in force until the wheat crop has been seeded and the premium paid. More than 2,500 farmers have already paid their premiums, and between now and November 19 we plan to contact every applicant who has not paid his premium, and give him an opportunity to secure the protection which the insurance will give him against crop failure or short crops.

In the collection of premiums one of the major difficulties encountered is the lack of ready cash with which to pay such premiums. In this matter the banks are in position to be of material assistance and in a great many cases bankers in the wheat territory have cooperated with local farmers to the fullest extent by making loans to finance the premium payments. Such loans are being secured by a mortgage on the crop and an assignment of the insurance policy. The policy may be assigned not only for the financing of premiums, but for any other expenditures necessary in connection with the preparation, seeding, care, and harvesting of the crop. In case of loss, indemnities payable by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation will be paid directly to the bank or other lending agency to which the policy has been assigned.

Only an approximate one week remains in which to collect premiums prior to the deadline for accepting premium payments on November 19. While premium payments over the State generally are progressing in a satisfactory manner, there are still many unpaid premiums and, quite naturally, we should like to see the percentage collections for the State reach the highest possible figure. This is true because an insurance policy is not in force until the premium is paid and unless a policy is issued, nothing has been accomplished by the fact that an application has been signed. We should, therefore, like to suggest that the supervisors contact every applicant for crop insurance from whom a definite answer, as to whether or not he would pay his premium, has not already been secured and make an effort to collect such premium.

In some sections of the State, applicants are failing to pay their premiums, due to the unusually favorable crop prospects at this time. Where this condition prevails, about the only suggestion which we might make would be to point out to the applicant that it is a long time until harvest and that many things may happen, and often do, to turn a good crop prospect into a crop failure. It is also desirable to point out that crop insurance should be considered as a long time proposition and a part of the farming business, rather than a one year proposition. This applies whether the crop outlook is good or bad at the time premiums are being paid.

Another factor which is influencing premium collections considerably is inadequate credit. If the local banks have not been willing to finance the insurance premiums which would be secured by a lien on the crop and an assignment of the policy, then the attention of the applicant should be called to the fact that 1938 Agricultural Conservation payments are assignable for the purpose of securing funds with which to pay insurance premiums, as this method of financing is contributing materially to premium collections in some counties.

By Elmo Scott Watson

Read It and Wonder
DEEMUS TAYLOR is famous as the composer of the score for the opera "The King's Henchman" and as one of the country's leading authorities on music. But back in 1912 his name meant something else—that of a writer of amusing oddities in verse. For instance, readers of the Century magazine must have rubbed their eyes when they read over his signature this:

AFE OWE 'EM
When fur stews can this ill ear I'm Toot rye tomb ache theme e'en ink leer,
Youth inked wood butt hee way sting
thyme
Use eh its imp leant on scent shear.

Gnome attar, Anna lies align;
Nation mice lender verse says knot,
Fork rip tick poet reel like mine
How Aaron wield demans allot.

But when they read it again—slowly and aloud—they found it was:

A POEM
When first you scan this silly rhyme
To try to make the meaning clear,
You think 't would but be wasting time
You say it's simply nonsense sheer.

No matter, analyze a line:
Nay, shun my slender verses not,
For cryptic poetry like mine,
How'er unworldly, means a lot.

Savings Clubs

BANKING institutions in thirty-eight States are now operating New York World's Fair 1939 Savings Clubs, according to a report just made to Grover A. Whalen, President of the Fair Corporation.

The popularity of these clubs arises from the fact that they enable individuals and families easily to finance a trip to the Fair next year through gradual accumulation of the necessary funds instead of by single demand upon financial resources. The slogan of the plan is: "Save Today to See the World of Tomorrow."

Some of the banks which have instituted the World's Fair Savings Clubs are operating in connection with Christmas and Vacation Clubs, these having for long been in successful existence.

In one of the Southern States, such Fair clubs have been organized in colleges to aid students to set aside part of their allowances to provide means of visiting the Exposition next Spring. Banks are also utilizing the plan to encourage saving by school children.

Attendance at the Fair is expected to reach 60,000,000, according to present estimates.

Important Notice About Wider and Better Roads

TO THE CITIZENS OF PRECINCT NO 1 JONES COUNTY:

If the citizens of Precinct one want it done, it is my desire to widen and rebuild thirty or forty miles of narrow roads during the late winter and spring of 1939. I want to widen those roads that are used as either mail or school bus routes. I want to do this work in every part of the precinct, if I can secure the right of way. I can not do this much needed work without the assistance of those that are interested in seeing it done. I will need the assistance of all, and especially of the people who live on these narrow roads in securing the right of way.

Unless something unforeseen happens, the only reason this work could not be done would be, because we can not secure the right of way.

The county would not want less than fifty feet of right of way, and we will replace your fences (where you have fences) in better shape than we found them. If you will grant Precinct No. 1 ground for this right of way on these narrow roads, if when the work is done and the road is completed, you do not say the improvement to the road and to your property, is not worth more to you, your property and the community than the amount of ground we use, Precinct No. 1 will pay you a reasonable price for all the ground they use. I kindly ask your cooperation and assistance in this project, for it can not be done unless you are willing and will help.

Yours truly,

JNO. C. Turner
Commissioner Precinct One, Jones County.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN AMERICAN BUSINESS

By JOHN CRADDOCK

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—BUSINESS —“Peace, it's wonderful.” That is quite evidently America's reaction to the calmer international atmosphere, and to prove it, business and industry are chalking up some highly encouraging statistics. Almost 225,000 shining 1939 autos will roll off Detroit assembly lines this month, with orders for new models in some cases the best in 10 years. Enthusiastic buying last week boosted stock prices to new peaks for 1938. Activity in the nation's cotton mills is moving upward at a much faster pace than usual for this time of year. National income will rise $5,200,000,000 in the second half of this year, the biggest jump in a decade, according to estimates.

WASHINGTON.—With the general elections only a few days away political interest now centers on the outcome of the contests for 435 House seats and 33 senatorships. One survey, among newspaper correspondents and politicians, predicted Republicans will gain fifty seats in the House and four in the Senate. In regard to the general economic situation, many in government circles are keeping an eye on the price index—to see that prices don't soar too high and force a recession similar to the one just left behind. Insiders say, however, that no special legislation is in the wind to fix price levels.

ON THE FARM FRONT.—Many dairy farms lacking satisfactory refrigeration have been confronted with the perplexing problem of how to cool milk in preparation for shipping. Several devices are on the market which give a solution, newest of which is a unit consisting of a pan-like aluminum cover which fits the top of the milk can and is equipped with a water motor and agitating shaft for stirring the milk. Water from the farm system operates the motor and the drains down over the outside of the can through perfection in the aluminum cover. Tests show that the milk temperature is lowered from 98 to 58 degrees in 15 minutes with water of 52 degrees temperature.

SALES TRENDS.—Recent reports of merchandising activity in department stores indicate the following: jewelry — increasing demand for heavy costume jewelry; women's full-fashioned hosiery—sales featured by popularity of subtle beige shades keyed to blend with colorful accessories; furniture—sales of mirror paneling for interior decoration and full-length mirrors for doors are moving up rapidly; lamps—steady gains in low and medium

Bronchial Coughs Need Creomulsion

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling germ-laden phlegm. The Medical Profession has for generations recognized the beneficial effect of Beechwood Creosote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Creosote with other ingredients so that now in Creomulsion you get a good dose of genuine Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and may be taken frequently by both adults and children. Creomulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles—due to common colds—hang on, get a bottle of Creomulsion from your druggist, use it as directed and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund your money. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Map Shows Territory to Be Served by Water Facilities Project

The map reproduced above shows the drainage basin of California Creek in Haskell, Jones, Fisher and Throckmorton counties, territory included in the California Creek water facilities project area. Headquarters for the project are at Stamford.

The California Creek water facilities project which will be operated to assist farmers of the California Creek watershed area in the development of water supplies on farm and ranch lands is one of 38 such projects approved by the Water Facilities Board in Washington for operations in 17 western states, Paul Walser, state coordinator for the Soil Conservation Service in Texas, has announced.

Mr. Walser announced that plans have now been completed to assist farmers living within the 700,000-acre watershed in the northern half of Jones County, the southern half of Haskell County and parts of Fisher and Throckmorton Counties, in the installation or construction of stock ponds, farm water storage reservoirs, water spreaders, small garden irrigation systems and windmills or pumps. Headquarters for the project have been established at Stamford.

The water facilities program in Texas is a cooperative enterprise, being carried on jointly by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, the Farm Security Administration and the Soil Conservation Service.

Under provisions of the Department of Agriculture water facilities program, the Soil Conservation Service is given general responsibility for the operations phase of the program, especially in working out plans for water facilities with the farmer and in supervising the construction or installation of water facilities. The Farm Security Administration is responsible for financing the program for individual farmers and in assisting in the preparation of a farm plan. The Bureau of Agricultural Economics is charged with over-all planning for designated agricultural areas.

Work on individual farms will be financed through loans made to the land operators by the Farm Security Administration. Funds thus advanced may be used by the farmer to meet costs of installation of the facilities. The farmer will not be required to pay for planning or other technical assistance furnished. The loans will be made at three percent interest and may extend for the life of the structure, but in no case for more than 20 years.

Farmers and ranchers must agree to furnish as much as possible of the necessary labor and materials needed to install or to construct a water facility. They also must adopt a sound farm or range management plan worked out in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service and the Farm Security Administration. Such plans will provide for the use of a complete and coordinated soil and water conservation farming system and a crop production program which will provide living expenses, operating costs and loan payments as well as subsistence crops to furnish food and feed for family and livestock.

In announcing the approval of the projects from Washington, Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace stated that "the program is an outgrowth of the report made by the President's Great Plains Committee in 1936. This report recommended the development of small water facilities in arid and semi-arid sections as a means of promoting better land use and assisting in the self-rehabilitation of distressed farm families."

It was pointed out that the addition of certain installations to supply water for farming needs will make it possible for many farmers who are now unable to profitably operate their land to make a success of their operations. Applications for water facilities work may be made to any county agricultural agent, rehabilitation supervisor or member of the Soil Conservation Service.

M'CAULLEY MATTERS

By JOHN P. HARDESTY

This column looked better last week, perhaps because it was blank. The writer was away in attendance of the Baptist General Convention, Dallas. Exactly 39 years ago he attended the Convention in Dallas, at which time the division came among Texas Baptists, one element withdrawing to form a new mission organization. But the regular Convention has remained intact, and has continued to grow, until now we number some 600,000. This writer was one among perhaps two dozen present last week who were at the 1899 Convention. Much water has run under the bridge during these eventful years. It has been good to live and work and worship with a great and growing people. Our better two-thirds went to the Convention also, to look after us and to visit with relatives.

E. H. Mason, who has been ill for several weeks has been removed to a hospital. His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery. His neighbors met last Monday and hauled in and stacked his feed. That is what neighbors are for. Friends of Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Bateman gave them a shower of useful gifts last Monday night. Bro. Bateman is leaving this week for the annual Conference at Memphis, Texas. He will likely be sent to another charge next year, as he has served four years on this work. personally, we wish he might be returned here.

Rev. Walton Johnson will preach at Swedonia next Sunday morning. The annual Red Cross drive is now on. All who can do so should join. The Red Cross is always on the job when any disaster comes to any section of the country. This was evidenced to all of us in the late Clyde community tornado.

Following is the program of the Workers Conference of Fisher County Baptist Association, meeting at Highland Home church, Monday, Nov. 21, beginning at 10:00 a. m. Devotional, W. T. Tardy. Justification, J. C. Parks. Adoption, D. G. Reid. Relation of Faith and Works, L. L. Trott. Sermon, J. H. Skiles. Lunch, noon, served by entertaining church. Board meeting. Devotional, C. B. Leech. B. T. U. Outlook for the new year, Edwin Johnson. Sunday School plans for the future, O. D. Henley. Report on State Convention, B. N. Shepherd. Sermon, L. G. Shepperd.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Prewitt, of Longworth spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mayo. Mrs. W. F. Davison attended the Baptist Convention in Dallas and visited her children, Jewell, June and Marvin in Denton. Jewell with a friend, Miss Alice Mays, of Sanger, brought Mrs. Davison home, spending the week-end with her parents here.

The public is earnestly requested to meet at the Methodist church next Monday night, at which time the Red Cross campaign will be mapped out. It is the regular meeting of the Boy Scouts, and they will cooperate in putting over the drive.
